25 years & still in love • 67 • Reverend Bob Kraning shares principles for having a happy marriage for life.
5 things I know about people • 279 • Dr. John Maxwell has some extraordinary insights into the way people are.
A brush with death • 173 • Joshua Youssef relates his Jonah experience. Side A has When death takes a spouse.
A counselor’s search for wholeness • 293 • Jim Conway. Many adults suffer from insecurity, anger and pain due to a troubled upbringing. Pastor and counselor Jim Conway is one of them. Conway describes the typical patterns of family dysfunction, examples of the pain he endured as a boy, and how his traumatic childhood hurt his wife and children.
A Christmas focus: one boy’s search for the true meaning of Christmas • 172 • Focus on the Family’s Christmas special for 2001.
A Christmas to remember • 169 • Focus on the Family’s Christmas special for 2002. A wonderful collage of stories and music.
A Jewish believer’s portrait • 35 • Lon Solomon. Messianic Jewish salvation testimony.
A life changed by love • 161 • John Polk. Testimony of deliverance from homosexuality.
Side B has Someone I love is gay.
A life-changing prayer • 107 • Dr. Bruce Wilkinson. Four simple lines. That’s as long as Jabez's prayer is. But that’s all it took for God to respond in mighty ways. Discover new insights to approaching God with your requests — from one of the least-known or understood prayer recorded in the Bible!
A man called Norman • 37 & 38 • Mike Atkins tells the story of how God used a mentally unstable neighbour to teach him some wonderful things.
A message to teens about sex • 202 • Fran Sciacca, high school teacher, shares a powerful message to teens with love and laughter. Fran warns the not-yet-wed about the disastrous consequences of early sexual activity. It’s an important message for teenagers — and their parents. Side B has Why home schools work (part 2).
A Mirror for the Soul • 339 • Dr. Ravi Zacharias reminds us how Jesus wants our lives to reflect His own, the significance of humility, and how God's timing is always better than our own.
A mother’s joy — 7 times over • 52 • Bobbi & Kenny McCaughey, parents of the Septuplets, interviewed by Dr. James Dobson.
A pediatrician’s advice on discipline • 224 • Dr. Bill Slonecker gives advice to parents regarding child rearing. He stresses the need for parents to think before acting in discipline.
A positive look at life • 120 • Luci Swindoll encourages her listening audience to live life to the fullest; to say “yes” to life. She concludes her message by giving three major points about celebrating life: 1) savor the moment 2) take a risk, and 3) get involved.
A prayer to ignite your life • 108 • Just as the Old Testament Jabez prayed for God's blessing, so Christians today ought to boldly ask the Lord to expand our ministry. So says Dr. Bruce Wilkinson in this powerful message on the National Day of Prayer. Wilkinson goes on to challenge listeners to pray a special prayer for 30 days and discover the amazing ways God will work in their lives.
A quiet conversation with Dr. Dobson • 164 • Things you might not have known before about Dr. James Dobson.
A role model for dads • 210 • Dr. Neil Warren offers both professional and personal perspectives on the subject of fathering. Side A has Reading to children.
A story of cancer & comfort • 19 • Dr. David Jeremiah was at the pinnacle of his successful ministry when cancer suddenly rocked his world. Jeremiah explains to Dr. James Dobson how a “bend in the road” became a source of strength for his family and for the people around him. It’s a touching confirmation of God’s presence in trials and triumphs. Dr. David Jeremiah shares how his struggle with cancer became a source of strength.
A teacher’s tale • 135 • Sandra Aldridge. Has the “Dropped flask” story of Dr. Richard Harvey’s. Side B has He is risen.
A teacher’s tales • 261 (Somewhat different version from 135) • Sandra Aldridge • Kenneth was the sort of trouble-making student that every educator dreads, and he sat in Sandra’s third period class. It took time, patience and perseverance, but she eventually broke through his tough facade and forged a common bond. Sandra uses inspiring and humorous stories to emphasize the important role adults play in the lives of children. Side B has Purified in God’s refining fire.

A traditional family • 20 • How the Bingaman family rallied around their son who got cancer.

A visit with Jeremiah Denton • 8 • Jeremiah Denton on his years as a POW held in solitary confinement by the Communist Vietnamese. Side A has When relationships break down.

A woman’s journey of faith • 39 • Mary Croley. The story of a woman who was abused as a child but grew up to be a great woman of God and ran a successful business, and the first woman to be appointed to the board of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association.

Aborting: the lasting effect • 146 • Dramatic testimony. Side B contains U.S. Senate debate on partial birth abortion.

Abuse: one survivor’s story • 328 • Michael Reagan, the adopted son of Ronald Reagan and Jane Wyman, seemed to live a privileged life... but unknown to his father and mother, his life was twisted by sexual abuse by a camp counselor.

Accepting your mate’s differences • 300 • Psychologist Kevin Leman takes a humorous look at the differences between men and women — especially in the context of marriage.

Adopted Child • 285 • Dr. James Dobson talks about adoption and how to give adopted children a good self-image.

Adrenaline & stress • 288 • Dr. Archibald Hart & Dr. James Dobson discuss how some of us are addicted to adrenaline, and what to do about it.

Adult attention deficit disorder • 286 • Panel discussion

Adults and their parents • 287 • Releasing grown children. Difficulties of adults relating to their parents.

Alan Keyes & the Republican Convention • 151 • Presidential candidate ambassador Alan Keyes discusses what is wrong morally in America.

Alan Keyes’ speech to the Physician’s Conference at Focus on the Family • 152 • Presidential candidate ambassador Alan Keyes discusses what is wrong morally in America.

Alfred Kinsey’s Alarming Legacy • 158 • Revealing the truth about the Kinsey Report. Sex statistics misinformation.

All is well • 168 • A story for Christmas by Frank Peretti. Poverty. Neighbourliness. Side B has Laughter, the best medicine.

All life is sacred • 168 • Abortion testimony. Side B has Jerry Johnston.

And baby makes three • 237 • Find out how you can balance the mounting responsibilities of a new baby — and still have time for communication and intimacy in your marriage. Elisa Morgan and Carol Kuykendahl, with Mothers of Preschoolers, provide “been-there-done-that” wisdom — when baby makes three. It’s a program that every young couple will want to hear!

Another look at alternative medicine • 188 • Dr. Walt Larimore & Dr. Paul Reiser discuss how to evaluate if an alternative medical treatment is valid or not.

Answers to the prayer of Jabez • 298 • Bruce Wilkinson discusses his new book, a sequel to The Prayer of Jabez. Side B has God’s miracle in my life.

As the Towers Were Falling • 312 • Stanley Praimnath. From the 81st floor of the World Trade Center, he could see an airplane bearing down directly at him. And that was only the beginning... Side A has Emergency in the family.
Authority: foundation of the home • 255 • For decades, Dr. Dobson has offered sound advice to families around the world. Today, we look back to 1977, as the Rev. Earl Lee interviews a very determined, extremely passionate and much younger Dr. James Dobson on the topic of authority in the home. Side A has Staying connected: devotions for couples.

Avoiding infidelity • 96 • Dr. Bob & Mrs. Cheryl Reccord discuss marital temptation, recounting stories of those who have fallen and steps to take to resist affairs and pornography.

Back from the brink of divorce • 68 • Larry Wright was a popular disk jockey, but his worldly success was hiding a drinking problem and a marriage falling apart. Side B has Being salt and light.

Becoming a man of God • 281 • Dr. John Maxwell. This is an awesome and inspiring exhortation from a 1994 Promise Keepers. Almost all men struggle with sexual temptations to one degree or another. We need accountability partners to help us stay true to the Lord.

Being men of God in a lost culture • 125 • Steve Farrar. Challenges men to be leaders in their homes and culture by leaning on the truth of God’s principles. From a Promise Keeper’s rally.

Being men of God’s word • 124 • Dr. John Maxwell. Side 2 has First hand faith.

Being salt and light • 68 • Tony Evans exhorts men to be salt and light to their families and to the world in this Promise Keepers talk from 1995. Side A has Back from the brink of divorce.

Beloved unbeliever • 331 • Jo Berry advices unequally-yoked believers how to focus on the positives of married life and not settle for a second-rate marriage just because their spouse is not a believer.

Brazilian street children • 148 • Interview with a social worker who helps them. Side A has Hostage crisis.

Breaking the silence • 29 • Duane Miller. Loss of voice. Miracle captured on tape. Side B has Standing in the gap.

Bringing beauty from ashes • 128 • Ann Graham Lotz speaks about how God uses trials to train us up.

Bringing life to others • 343 • Tammy Maltby shares personal stories that demonstrate the power, simplicity and necessity of encouraging friends, loved ones - even strangers. Side B has Wide my world… narrow my bed.

Bringing up boys • 214 • Dr. James Dobson is interviewed by Chris Fabry about his new book about the trials and joys of bringing up boys.

Building a child’s conscience • 170 • Dr. James Dobson gives more good parenting advice. Side A has Lessons from Jonah.

Building a safe haven for marriage • 330 • Dr. Arch Hart & Dr. Sharon Hart Morris talk about how we can strenghten our marriages in th emidst of life’s everyday demands.

Building a stronger family • 244 • Gary Smalley. Family constitutions.

Captives for Christ • 11 • Interview with the wives of the New Tribes Missions missionaries who are being held hostage.

Catch me if you can • 17 • Frank Abignale. Testimony of a con artist.

Cherish your wife • missing? • Dr. Walter Laramore gives some good marriage tips. Side A has Loving your marriage.

Child safety on the Internet • 233 • Discussion. Precautions to take.

Children and chores • 251 • Jean Lush shares ideas on how to creatively engage your children in daily chores, and why this is good even when it might be easier in the short run to do the chores yourself. Side A has The destiny of our youth.

Choose Laughter • 100 • Dennis Swanson. You don’t have to be a sour plum to be a good Christian. Side A has Viva la difference.

Choosing to be joyful • 121 • Luci Swindoll is a person who really illustrates how you can have a happy, fulfilled, single life. Her outlook on life is characterized by not just deep joy but also hilarious laughter and that all comes out in her talk. Incidentally, she’s Chuck Swindoll’s elder sister.

Christ’s influence on history • 137 • Dr. Alvin Schmidt discusses with Dr. Dobson the impact that Christ has had on Western culture.

Christian Colleges: A Positive Influence • 40 • Dr. James Dobson presents a talk from Mrs. Julie Woodley’s story of the long journey away from a childhood of abuse. Side B has Mothers of handicapped children.

Christian men and sexuality • 182 • Dr. Archibald Hart discusses Christian men’s struggles & joys with sexuality.

Chronic fatigue syndrome • 190 • Testimony of 3 CFIDS sufferers & a spouse.

Communicating without words • 49 • Rhea Zakich, creator of the Ungame, lost her voice for three months. She describes the lessons she learned about communication during this challenging time in her life. Side B contains Flying High.

Communication in marriage • 280 • Dr. Paul Faulkner reveals what wives want to hear from their husbands and describes ways to improve communication within marriage. Side B contains Letting go.

Coping as a messie • 23 • Sandra Felton. Some people are “housekeeping impaired” — it takes much more effort for them to keep their houses clean than other people. Side A has The life of the party.

Courageous Choices • 2 • Diet Eman is interviewed by Dr. Dobson about her experiences in the Dutch Resistance during the Second World War.

Creative ideas for child discipline • 223 • Lisa Whelchel was one of the kids on The New Micky Mouse Club and one of the regular stars on The Facts of Life, but she finds being a full-time mom more fulfilling than her career on TV.

Dad, I’m pregnant • 50 • A dad named Bill. Christian teen daughter’s pregnancy.

Dare to discipline: the law of reinforcement • 226 • Dr. James Dobson’s suggestions on how to properly discipline your child without breaking his spirit.

Defeating Darwinism • 133 • Dr. Philip Johnson. Evolution.

Defeating the Darkness of Abortion • 338 • Kathy Sparks recounts how she started working in the abortion industry, offers a behind-the-scenes look at how an abortion clinic operates, and describes how her job took a devastating toll on her personal life.

Defended by the Lord • 32 • Testimony of a Christian girl “Leesha” who became pregnant out of wedlock when in university and what happened to her when she was told to have an abortion.

Developing your child’s character • 243 • Dr. Donald Joy talks about how children learn the values of their parents and how parents can pass those values on to the next generation.

Difficult people in our lives • 43 • Marilyn Hansi. Tear-jerking testimony of a child who was rejected by her dad & stepmother.

Diffusing anger in marriage • 98 • Jean Lush gives good advice on how to diffuse anger in marriage.

Diffusing anger in marriage • 323 • This is the short version of #98 — condensed into one half-hour broadcast. Side A has The battle to destroy lust.

Discovering the Abundant Life • 337 • John Eldredge joins Dr. Dobson to discuss how boys develop into men, the roles fathers play in this transition and how grown men can find in God what they never received from their earthly fathers. The “Wild at Heart” author describes the healing God performed in his life, the reality of spiritual warfare and the freedom that accompanies a deeper relationship with God.

Dr. James Dobson blast the Republicans at the Council for National Policy • 150 • The Republican Party in America claims to stand for a lot of the moral values that Christians support, but a lot of it is only lip service. Note: this is not a Focus on the Family cassette. Dr. Dobson is speaking his mind as a private citizen and not as a representative of Focus on the Family.

E.V. Hill on the death of his wife • 45 • Side A contains The sounds of life.

Embryo adoption • 314 • They’re called “Snowflake babies” — children adopted as frozen human embryos. More than 400,000 embryos live in cold storage across the nation; more than 400,000 children in need of parents.

Emergency in the family • 312 • Charlie and Victoria Jarvis rarely left their children in the care of a babysitter. But then came the day they were glad they did. Side B has As the towers were falling.

Encounters with Jesus • 315 • Priscilla Evans Shirer • Is there someone in your life who resists all things Christian? Today's guest is here to remind us that no one is beyond the reach of God's transforming love. Side A has Helping kids deal with anger.

Enjoying the single life • 336 • Michelle McKinney Hammond and Camerin Courtney describe how they came to terms with their unmarried status, how to maintain sexual purity and the pros and cons of blind dating and online romance, the importance of cultivating opposite-sex friendships, why many Christian singles are avoiding the dating scene and how churches can better serve this population of believers.

Escaping the lure of infidelity • 325 • Dr. David Jeremiah talks about how to establish boundaries that will help you avoid infidelity.

Escaping the past • 42 • Jack Price. Surviving child abuse.

Examining addictive behaviors • 177 • Dr. James Dobson and Dr. Archibald Hart discuss the attraction — and the power — of addictions.

Examining our attitudes • 119 • Patsy Clairmont really knows how to make you laugh while teaching you spiritual truths. Circumstances can have very different effects on your lives depending on your attitude.

Examining the value of life • 145 • Former “Abortion King” Dr. Bernard Nathanson (one of the founders of what became the National Abortion Rights Action League) recounts how he became an advocate for the unborn.

Experiencing a Fulfilled Marriage • 93 • Patricia Ashley. Women looking for down-to-earth, biblical teaching on marriage will appreciate this solid yet humorous message from the wife of a retired Air Force officer.

Facing fears head-on • 116 • Carol Kent. Told with humour. Tells us how we can lean on the Lord to see us through.

Facts for teens about love and life • missing? • In a culture of dissolving commitment and fidelity, how would teens and young adults defy the odds and develop lasting, satisfying relationships? Side B contains Healing relationships (plus songs).

Faith and longevity • 186 • Dr. Harold Koenig. Medical studies showing the benefits of faith on health.

Faith must be tough • 178 • Dr. James Dobson explains why Christians need to develop faith that will persevere through difficult times.

Family Nights • 232 • Dr. James Dobson welcomes a group of fathers who have developed a creative way to enjoy meaningful family times of spiritual growth. Kids enjoy them. Everybody learns from them! Grow closer to the Lord — and to your family!

Family: the hope for a nation • 18 • A dramatic testimony.

Fatherhood, fears & fun • 113 • Humorist Phil Callaway encourages fathers to be GUYS: Graceful, Understanding, Yielding and Successful.

Fathering the next generation • 263 • Dr. Bernard Franklin shares and inspiring message on the influence fathers have on the next generation.

Fathers: Shaping a daughter’s Life • 220 • Based on his book What a Difference a Daddy Makes, Dr. Kevin Leman shares solid parenting principles to help fathers understand the important role they play in the lives of their daughters. Side B has Living above your circumstances.

Filling Your Love Tanks • 276 • Dr. Dennis Swanberg • “The Swan” is back and he wants you to share the love! With his trademark mix of impressions, stories and homespun wisdom, funnyman Dennis Swanberg delivers a touching and humorous message, sure to bring a smile to your face and encouragement to your soul. Side A contains Help for stepfamilies.
Finding a healthy family perspective • 80 • Dr. Steve Farrar gives advice to young couples who desire to create a budget that would allow the wife to be a stay-at-home mom.

Finding God’s will for your life • 203 • From Dr. James Dobson’s Life on the Edge series.

Finding Jesus in the Old Testament • 138 • Stan Kellner and Dr. James Dobson talk about significant connections between the Old Testament and Jesus’ life. Side A has The Origins of homosexuality.

Finding life at death’s door • 66 • Ann Kiemel Anderson talks about the struggles she had with her husband and addiction and poor self-image. Side A has How can I change?

Finding the One True God • 28 • Chief Shoefoot, interpreted by Gary Dawson. Testimony of a witch doctor who believed because of the spiritual power of Christ.

Finding true forgiveness • 290 • Dr. R.T. Kendall. Forgiveness sure sounds good, until you’re the one that’s been hurt — then it’s not so easy.

First hand faith • 124 & 212 • Dr. Bruce Wilkinson addresses the profound impact Christian men can have on their family’s faith. Side A of 124 has has Being men of God’s word. Side A of 212 has has Raising boys: men aren’t fools.

Flying High • 49 • Gaye Martin. Gaye Martin compares lessons in flying to the lessons she has learned walking with the Lord. Side A contains Communicating without words.

Flying high for the Lord • 16 • Russell Quinn, test pilot, gives his inspiring testimony.

Forgiving my father • 283 • David Meece was a successful Christian recording artist, but he remained haunted by the abuse he suffered at the hands of his father as a child. The wounds cut deep, and no matter how hard he tried, he could not forgive the man who caused him so much pain, until a single divine moment changed everything.

Forgiving the dead man walking • 30 & 31 (2 tapes) • Debbie Morris tells about the healing power of forgiveness. She was one of the victims of the rapist/murderer whose story was told in the movie Dead Man Walking.

From mistreated son to missionary man • 59 • Mark Bowman. Testimony.

Gambling your life away • 136 • Dr. John Eades discusses how his gambling addiction cost him $300,000 over three years, and led to the attempted suicides of his daughter, wife and even himself. Side A has Stones from the Holy Land.

Getting married: it’s more than just saying “I do” • 70 • Dr. Neil Clark Warren. People spend so much time and money preparing for the wedding, but often spend so little preparing for the marriage. Here are some suggestions for how to prepare for your marriage and hence have a much better chance of having a successful marriage.

Give yourself a break • 112 • Ken Davis gives a hilarious speech on how I’m not OK, you’re not OK, but it’s OK because God loves us anyway. Side A has Words of kindness, source of healing.

God is in control • 43 • Bob Vernon. Testimony of what happened to a man who was thrown out of the police force because of his faith and how God used him afterwards to spread the Gospel to other lands in giving police seminars.

God isn’t dead • 25 • Gert Bahana. The testimony of a rich woman who was poor spiritually. Alcoholic, multiple divorces.

God made us a family • 58 • Dick Gouch. Testimony. Pride comes before fall.

God uses cracked pots • 118 • Patsy Clairmont really knows how to make you laugh while teaching you spiritual truths. In this speech she encourages you that God can use you no matter what, if you let Him.

God’s design for intimacy • 299 • The Reverend Tommy Nelson gives great advice based on the Song of Solomon about how to have a great sex life in a speech to a room full of singles.

God’s direction in my life • 55 • Bob Vernon. Good advice for your people who are not yet sure what God’s called them to. Former Chief of Police who was thrown out because he stood up for Christ.

God’s fingerprints on the universe • 134 • Dr. William Dembski & Dr. Mark Hartwig discuss the evidence for intelligent design as opposed to blind evolution.
God’s grace is sufficient • 3 • Diet Eman recounts how she, along with her friends and fiancé, Hein, aided Dutch Jews during the German invasion, survived the concentration camp, and was able to move from heartbreak to healing following the war. An inspiring story that will fill you with hope as this gentle woman shares God's unwavering faithfulness. (Also available in a 60-minute version.)

God’s grace is sufficient • 3 • Diet Eman. Testimony of a Dutch Christian who helped save Jews from the Nazis. (Also available in a 90-minute version.)

God’s healing for wounded hearts • 179 • Janet Parshall and Lysa Terkeurst talk about Lysa’s hurtful past.

God’s help in my life • 27 • Dale Evans Rogers shares her testimony of faith in God through good times and bad. Side A has The last gift we give.

God’s miracle in my life • 298 • Molly Brannen recounts her life story and explains what happened when God intervened. Side A has Answers to the prayer of Jabez.

God’s pattern for good • 115 • Elizabeth Elliott shares how God is sovereign and can be trusted — even through personal tragedy.

God’s plan for marriage • 85 • Kurt and Olivia Bruner sit in for Dr. James Dobson—and are joined by authors Eric and Leslie Ludy for a discussion on hope in romance and marriage. The Ludys describe what led to the publication of their book When God Writes Your Love Story. Experience marriage through God’s eyes in this compelling and romantic ode to present and future generations!

God’s protection during war & peace • 6 • Helen Richards. Testimony of a woman who as a little Russian girl witnessed and survived the horrors of a Nazi concentration camp.

God’s story: my song • 26 • The inspirational testimony of Dr. Jean Garton, who describes a series of tragedies that befell her family - while God miraculously worked in each seemingly hopeless situation.

God’s way or my way • 110 • Frank Peretti is famous for his Christian novels on spiritual warfare, but he is also a very gifted speaker, often providing his own sound effects. In this speech he talks about how we must choose between self and God.

God’s word in black & white • 131 • R. C. Sproul & Lee Strobel answers the people who claim that Jesus is mythological.

Going all out for your wife • 249 • Steve Farrar discusses the importance of a husband’s commitment to Christ, his role as family leader and his responsibility to love and cherish his wife. Whether they’re friends, loved ones or the people down the block, we all know couples who have fallen on hard times. So, how can you build a marriage that will go the distance?

Happily Married Opposites • 101 • Chuck & Barb Snyder. Difficulties in marriage.

He is risen • 135 • Ray Vander Laan is an amazing Bible teacher who made the That the World may Know video series. In this interview, he talks about he setting for the resurrection. Side A has A Teacher’s Tale.

Healing relationships (plus songs) • missing? • Strengthening the ties that bind (including the songs “The greatest man I never knew” by Reba Mcintyer, and “Cat’s in the cradle” by Harry Chapin.) Side A contains Facts for teens about love and life.

Healing the past and moving on • 44 • Carolyn Koons. Deep emotional hurts can affect one’s marriage, job and even health. She outlines steps we can take to heal injured emotions, and the scars that are often left behind. She shares the heartbreaking trauma of her severely abusive childhood—including her father's threats to take her life—and her pilgrimage of healing. She recounts how being a Christian allowed her to deal with her emotional scars and how God used her struggles to prepare her for her future work. Carolyn encourages listeners to embrace their life experiences and use them, both good and bad, for God's kingdom.

Help for angry moms • 269 • Julie Ann Barnhill shares her heart on the difficulties and pressures of motherhood.

Help for busy mothers • 236 • Based on their book, The 60-Minute Mother, Rob and Dianne Parsons offer encouragement and hope to mothers.
Help for Stepfamilies • 276 • Ron Deal • Did you know that nearly one third of all U.S. Children live in stepfamilies? Combining different households isn’t always easy, but it can be done. Listen in as stepfamily expert Ron Deal discusses common mistakes stepfamilies make, the effects of divorce and remarriage on children, and ways couples can build a happy, healthy household. Side B has Filling Your Love Tanks.

Helping kids deal with anger • 315 • U.S. Rep. Tim Murphy. Children typically become angry when they are feeling pain, stress or desire. That’s why they need your help as a parent in dealing with these feelings. Congressman and psychologist Tim Murphy discusses the causes of and solutions for childhood anger, family circumstances that can lead to angry children, and how you can keep angry kids from becoming angry teens. Side B has Encounter with Jesus.

Heritage Builders • 245 • Everyone hopes to leave a great heritage. Find out how you can equip your children with a solid spiritual foundation.

Hiding Place • 117 • Patsy Clairmont really knows how to make you laugh while teaching you spiritual truths. Here she gives her testimony about how she used to be afraid to leave her home but now travels extensively speaking to women all over America and beyond.

High tech romance • 72 • Dr. Neil Clark Warren talks about his eHarmony online matchmaker and Dr. Dobson interviews several couples who have gotten married through meeting thereon.

Hollywood: from the inside out • 153 • Interview with tentmaker missionaries to the mission field that is the vast moral wasteland of Hollywood.

Home employment: exploring the options • 305 • A panel of guests discuss how to have a viable home-based business.

Home with a heart • 166 • A collection of Focus on the Family minute commentaries.

Homosexuality: why change is possible • 159 • Dr. Robert Spitzer & Dr. Joseph Nicolosi discuss a new study which shows that many homosexuals have changed orientations and become happier people as heterosexuals. Side A has Jesus and his power.

Hooray for dad • 295 • Ken Davis. For parents and children alike, simply saying “I love you” can be a challenge. In honor of Father’s Day, humorist Ken Davis is here to remind us that expressing affection is well worth the effort. Davis uses heartfelt stories to teach us the importance of kind words, appropriate touch and a life committed to Christ.

Hope in the midst of ADD/ADHD • 322 • Dennis Swanberg & Diane Passno discuss Attention Deficit Disorder and how these kinds of kids react, and how, given the right environment, they can go on to excel.

Hostage crisis • 148 • Hostage situation at Focus on the Family’s campus in Colorado Springs. Side B has Brazilian street children.

How can I change? • 66 • Ann Kiemel Anderson talks about her struggles with marriage • Side B has Finding life at death’s door.

How moving impacts women • 106 • Susan Miller explains why moving is usually much more traumatic for women than it is for men.

How to beat burnout • 176 • Dr. Paul Meyer, Dr. Frank Minnereth, & Dr. Don Hawkins. Panel discussion. Side B has Looking after aged parents.

How to fight fair • 104 • Drs. Les and Leslie Parrott answer that all-important question: how do married couples learn the rules of fighting fair? There’s method in the battle and your marriage is the winner in a "how-to" from an expert couple who practice what they preach!

How to improve your husband’s wife • 83 • Dr. Howard Hendricks speaks from the male point of view.

How to save your marriage • 95 • Dr. James Dobson examines what may be the primary source of conflict in marriage in this 1977 presentation to a Sunday school class. Candidly drawing on personal experience, he suggests practical ways husbands and wives can set healthy priorities that prevent over-commitment, fatigue and tension from shattering their relationship. Side A has The mystique of a woman.
How to teach your child about sex • 241 • Dr. Grace Kettermann and Dr. James Dobson discuss parental attitudes about sex and how they affect children. Side A has Raising the standard for our children.

I will never • 22 • Jane Bateman. Testimony about when tragedy strikes and God doesn’t seem to make sense.

I will never leave thee • 24 • Darlene Rose. Testimony of a missionary who ended up being World War II prisoner of war of the Japanese.

I, Isaac, take you, Rebekah • missing? • Ravi Zacharias gives advice to unmarried young men & women.

If Jesus lived in my house • 126 • Lee Strobel on sharing the Gospel.

If only Herod had known • 167 • Ray Vander Lawn, the amazing Bible teacher, tells of some amazing details about Herod and the birth of Jesus. Side B contains The Importance of Giving.

In defense of spanking • 254 • Dr. Bill Maier & Dr. Walt Larimore tackle the pros and cons of spanking, offering advice and practical steps parents can take to appropriately handle their children’s misbehavior. It’s become one of today’s most controversial parenting issues, as moms and dads across the country are frustrated if they don’t spank their children, and feel guilty if they do. Side A has Renewing my heart.

In-law conflict • 252 • Howard Hendricks joins Dr. Dobson to discuss how a husband and wife can ensure a good relationship with both sets of parents, as well as what parents can do to prevent friction and discord in the family. Side A has The joys of grandparenting.

In memory of Bill Bright • 304 • Bill Bright, founder of one of the biggest evangelistic movements in the 20th century, died in July 2003. But the positive attitude he had facing death can be an inspiration to many. Side A contains In memory of Larry Burkett.

In memory of Larry Burkett • 304 • Larry Burkett, who in the late 20th Century personified a Christian perspective on finances, died in July 2003. Side B contains In memory of Bill Bright.

Innate differences between men & women • 82 • Dr. Donald Joy talks about how neurological studies show that men and women are innately different.

Inside the mind of a molester • 250 • Robert Van Domelen served time in prison for molesting more than 20 children. The cycle of abuse began — as with many other pedophiles — when he was just a child. The pain and anger associated with sexual abuse is almost too much to describe for the victim and the abuser. This broadcast offers help and hope to both. Bob Van Domelen and John Paulk also field questions on a variety of issues related to sexual abuse, offering helpful, biblically-based advice.

Insights for America/“truth” v.s. TRUTH • 143 • Citing several Scriptures and vivid illustrations, Janet Parshall delivers a rousing, powerful message about the necessity of presenting the absolute truth of the Gospel in a culture that has come to believe only in relative truth. Such topics as tolerance, partial birth abortion, euthanasia and feminism are also addressed.

Integrity in the workplace • 274 • Barry Minkow was just 16 when he launched his business, and by the time he was 20, it was worth more than $240 million. But the ambition that landed him a Ferrari, a mansion and a butler also landed him in prison. He was suicidal, haunted by guilt and on the verge of bankruptcy. But God had a different plan.

Interview with Columbine Survivors • 13 • The killers in the Columbine High School massacre in Littleton, Colorado, specifically targeted Christians. The ancient saying “The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church” comes true again as many turn to the Lord as a result.

Investing in eternity • 127 • Dr. Walt Larimore interviews Randy Alcorn of Eternal Perspective Ministries who demonstrates the meaning of “The Treasure Principle”. It’s a refreshing look at money, materialism and the old mantra “Whoever dies with the most toys wins.” Where are you storing your treasure? And how will you invest the money God’s given you?

Is your house a home? • 103 • Kurt & Olivia Bruner tell their stories.
Is your parachute packed? • 7 • Captain Charlie Plum was a fighter pilot — shot down behind enemy lines — captured — and deprived of even the simplest comforts. He talks about his life as a prisoner of war. What did the years he spent in an eight-foot cell teach him about life and faith?

Jerry Johnston • 64 • Bad boy’s testimony. Side A has All life is sacred.

Jesus and his power • E.V. Hill, Good Friday 1998. Side B has Homosexuality: why change is possible.

Jesus can’t be the Messiah, can he? • 36 • Stan Telchin. Testimony. A Jew’s journey to Jesus.

Just like sisters • 141 • Mrs. Dee Brestin and Mrs. Sally Brestin Solak. While this program was designed to address the need that women, especially homemakers, have to develop relationships with other women, I found it to be humorous, entertaining, and informative for men as well.

Keys to the human heart • 294 • Gary Smalley. Is there healthy openness between you and your loved ones, or have loneliness, frustration and strife damaged your ability to nurture meaningful relationships? Gary Smalley describes common sources of pain in relationships, tools you can use to overcome hurt and the healing value of physical touch.

Laughter, the best medicine • 168 • Ken Davis. Humorous testimony. Side A has All is well.

Learning styles • 310 • Cynthia Tobias. How to help kids who are failing in school, how to find the best educational option for your child and how to deal with gender bias in the classroom Learning to be happy • 183 • Dr. & Mrs. Leslie Parrott speak on how attitude makes a big difference.

Lessons from Jonah • 170 • David Shelton does a one-man drama acting as the prophet Jonah. Side B has Building a child’s conscience.

Letting go • 280 • Carolyn Koons, Letting God have His way in us.

Lifted out of the depth • 51 • Serge LeClerc, a former prisoner, shares his testimony and communicates his experiences in prison. He also relates his salvation story and how the Lord delivered him from drug abuse. Side A contains My house shall be a house of prayer.

Lighten up with Liz • 122 • Liz Curtis Higgs encourages everyone to laugh at themselves and the future, putting aside their hurts so that they can focus on Christ. Side B contains Why purity matters.

Living above your circumstances • 220 • Mary Glynn Peeples’ testimony about God's grace to save — and change! Side A has Fathers: shaping a daughter’s life.

Living with messy kids • 333 • Sandra Felton describes how parents can have an organized home and responsible children, and accomplish both by working less and managing more. Side B has Loving God.

Living with the strong-willed child • 230

Looking after aged parents • 176 • Mrs. Grace Chavis. Side A has How to beat burnout.

Lord, keep us free • 4 • Maria “Hansi” Ann Hershman, ex-Hitler Youth member, who was imprisoned in a Communist prison camp, shares her testimony.

Love and marriage • 253 • Rob Parsons offers help and hope to married couples everywhere, discussing typical expectations many spouses hold, common areas of conflict and simple methods for improving communication.

Love for a lifetime • 84 • Dr. James Dobson. Some great tips about how to stay married “till death do us part” from a famous Christian psychologist.

Love healed my wounds • 149 • Dave Roever brings a message of hope by sharing his life story and the lessons God taught him through many difficult circumstances. (It’s an inspiring speech once you get past the American patriotism.) Side A has Restoring the lampstand to America.

Loving God • 333 • Chuck Colson describes the deplorable conditions in many prisons, presents biblical alternatives to incarceration, and offers an encouraging message to prisoners and their families. Side A has Living with messy kids.
Loving your marriage • 89 • Dr. Kevin Leman gives some good marriage tips. Side B has Cherish your wife.

Macaroni at midnight • 256 • Don Bartlette was born with a severe cleft palate that deformed his face and made it almost impossible to speak clearly. Still, the emotional scars were even more severe. You won't want to miss today's riveting broadcast, as speaker and educator Don Bartlette recalls how 17 years of pain left him bitter and broken - and that's when he met the person who would change his life forever.

Man to Man • 123 • Rev. Gordon Dalbey. Talking about the masculine soul and the healing that many men need.

Managing Your Home and Time • 266 • Author Emilie Barnes offers practical advice for home organization and making more efficient use of time.

Mark Anderson's Testimony • 62 • Abused childhood, decathelete, cocaine addict. Side A contains Resentment: the cancer of the emotions.

Marriage Savers • 97 • Marriage Encounters is a programme that enhances your marriage. Dr. James Dobson and his wife Shirley went to one, not expecting much because they already had a great marriage. Boy, were they surprised how it could be even better.

Marriage survival skills • 99 • Scott Stanely & Gary Smalley. Includes a discussion of conflict-resolution skills that are applicable in other relationships.

Marriage with grace and honour • 86 • Gary Smalley. Interview. The marriage commitment. How to stay happily married for life.

Meeting your mate's desires • 92 • Art & Lysa Terkeurst discuss how to build a stronger marriage by meeting your mate's primary emotional needs.

Merging pre-marital expectations • 73 • Toben and Joanne Heim. Ah, marriage. The wedding was perfect; the honeymoon sublime. Your life together is everything you expected or is it? This discussion is about the "great expectations" couples often take into a marriage — and how much family upbringing shapes those expectations.

Messages of love • 163 • Valentine’s day. Listener’s comments.

Michael Chang: on and off the court • 260 • As a 6-year-old, Michael Chang had tried other sports, but when he first swung a tennis racket, Chang knew that he had found his passion. Chang, author Mike Yorkey and Dr. Dobson discuss Chang’s road to success, the value of a supportive family and his unwavering boldness in crediting Christ for all his achievements, professional highlights, personal conduct and public stance for abstinence. Chang’s devotion to Christ has proven rock solid.

Ministering to prisoners’ families • 335 • Manny Mill encourages Christians to reach out to prisoners’ families, and offers practical suggestions for ministering to this forgotten segment of society. Side A has When love isn’t enough.

Miscarriage: grieving the loss • 272 • Even if you've never experienced a miscarriage, odds are good that you know someone who has. Two couples who have lost children to miscarriage describe their grieving process, how many couples memorialize their babies, and ways to reach out to these hurting families. Did a previous abortion cause our miscarriage? Is God punishing us for past sin? What did we do to deserve this? They discuss grieving, healing and letting go of the pain.

Modesty v.s. aggressiveness • 257 • Years ago, men and women understood their roles when it came to romance - but, oh, how things have changed. Dr. Dobson and a panel of experts discuss what men and women are really looking for in a relationship, how feminism has undermined their perceptions and what we can do to bring back a traditional perspective.

Moms in touch • 235 • Fern Nichols organized moms to pray for schools.

More than meets the eye • 48 • Joan Brock describes how her faith in God helped her overcome many obstacles in her life, such as incurring blindness at age 32 and losing her husband to cancer. Side B has Overflowing with joy.

Mothers of handicapped children • 40 • Panel Discussion with several mothers, all with handicapped children. Side A has Christian colleges: a positive influence.

Mothers of toddlers • 303 • Dr. Dobson discusses raising toddlers with a panel of mothers of varying ages.
My adopted son: a single woman’s journey • 329 • Carolyn Koons thought she was just on a mission trip to Mexico… but she ended up being mother to a poor abused boy who was falsely accused of murder.

My house shall be a house of prayer • 51 • Rev. Jim Cymbala, pastor of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, shares his testimony of the importance and power of prayer in his life, including how the faithful prayers of his congregation brought his prodigal daughter back to the Lord. Side B contains Lifted out of the depth.

My Journey to Salvation • 262 • Adolph Coors IV’s grandfather committed suicide, his father was killed by a stalker and his mother turned to alcohol to soothe her pain. He quickly learned that material prosperity could never protect him from misfortune. An idyllic childhood took a terrible turn and left him searching for something more. He was living the American dream, yet felt utterly unfulfilled. Life without God left him feeling empty. His search for meaning radically changed his life forever.

Navigating the rapids of life • 306 • Carolyn Koons humorously recounts how a relaxing voyage down the Snake River quickly turned into a perilous adventure, and reminds us that, in times of trouble, God can steer us through even the most raging waters. Side B has Power for living.

Never beyond the reach of love • 53 • Pat Wadenful. The touching story of adopting an orphaned Chinese girl.

No substitute for daddy’s love • 221 • Dr. David Jeremiah emphasizes the importance of the relationship between fathers and daughters. Includes the Steve & annie Chapman song on a father’s love

No two alike • 231 • Cynthia Tobias, the author of The Way They Learn, discusses how God created every snowflake, every single drop of rain — and every child — to be unique. They have distinct differences in personalities and learning styles. Discover ways in which your kids are different from others — and from you — and how you can help them to excel in life.

Non-custodial dads • 142 • A discussion about the problems faced by fathers who don’t have primary custody of their children.

Oliver North: A New Direction • 321 • Oliver North, of Iran-Contra scandal infamy, tells how he became a believer, and what he’s up to these days.

One courageous woman • 142 • The story of Carolyn Carney. Blindness, rape. Side A has Overcoming Adversity.

One fearless child, one faithful family • 21 • The story of a girl with cystic fibrosis and the welfare system that almost tore her family apart.

One Surrendered life • 61 • Bob Coy. Testimony about the emptiness of success.

Orphan survivor of the Korean War • 9 • Stephanie Fast was born of an American soldier father and a Korean prostitute mother. Abandoned as a little girl, she survived on rats and was almost murdered by racists.

Overcoming adversity • 34 • Dan Miller, an award-winning educator who overcame polio to achieve his dream anyway. Side B has One courageous woman.

Overcoming anger • 242 • Gary Smalley talks about the dangers of anger and the importance of dealing with it in a godly manner. Side A contains Train up a child.

Overcoming the past • 316 • Michael Reagan grew up as the adopted son of Ronald Reagan, but he had a secret: he had been molested by a person his family trusted.

Overflowing with joy • 48 • Based on her book, "Splash the Living Water," Esther Burroughs encourages listeners to let the joy of the Lord overflow in their lives. Side A has More than meets the eye.

Overweight children • 187 • Angela Vittucci talks about how to deal with obesity in children. Side A has Tipping the scales in your favour.

Pardoned by God’s grace • 60 • Phil Downer, a former Marine, talks about how his friend died in his place in Vietnam, the marriage troubles he had after returning home and his eventual salvation.

Parenting basics: the first year • 239 • A bundle of joy — and a bundle of nerves! Dr. James Dobson and a medical panel from the Physicians’ Resource Council discuss parenting basics for the first year of life. All about kid-proofing your home, toddler safety, appropriate discipline, and taking care of your child — and you!

Parenting: enjoying the process • 238 • Dr. Kevin Leman gives great parenting tips in a humorous manner.

Parents prepare for adolescence • 340 • Dr. Dobson and a panel of parents discuss why it’s so important to talk to their children about sex, some Focus on the Family resources designed to help you, and ways to make this time with your son or daughter memorable.

Path of endurance • 114 • Dr. James Dobson presents a classic message by Elizabeth Elliot, a missionary wife who carried on the ministry after local villagers murdered her husband. Side A Has Praying with power.

Plane down in the Bering Sea • 15 • Don Morton. Missionary airplane crash in the freezing waters of the Bering Sea and their miraculous rescue. Side B has Rescued by the hand of God.

Pornography: winning the battle • 155 • A panel discussion in 1992 discussing the (then) American government’s fight against pornography (obsolete.)

Positive child rearing • 265 • Sometimes serious, sometimes funny and always entertaining, author, psychologist and father-of-five Kevin Leman wants us all to know that no parent is perfect. On today’s program, Leman takes a humble and humorous look at his parenting skills, offering advice on practical discipline, honest communication and quality family time. Side B has The importance of heros.

Positive parenting • 240 • Zig Ziglar

Power for living • 306 • y reminds us that God’s power is more than enough for successful living. Side A has Navigating the rapids of life.

Praying for a nation at war • 270 • Oliver North. Ignore the American sabre-rattling and you will find a touching testimony of how Oliver “Iran Crontra Affair” North came to Christ.

Praying with power • 114 • Prayer — have you come to understand the powerful impact it can have on your life? Author and speaker Dr. Howard Hendricks discusses the importance of prayer in the life of a believer. Find out ways that you can use prayer to enhance — and empower — your walk with the Lord! Side B has Path of endurance.

Preparing for widowhood • 174 • Panel discussion interview and testimonies of 5 widows.

Press On • 109 • Frank Peretti is famous for his Christian novels on spiritual warfare, but he is also a very gifted speaker, often providing his own sound effects. In this message he talks about the effect of a simple, unshakable faith.

Preventing homosexuality • 227 • Dr. Jospeh Nicolosi joins Dr. Dobson to discuss the primary factors that can contribute to homosexuality, behaviors in children that may indicate sexual confusion, and how parents can nurture the development of healthy heterosexuality in their sons and daughters.

Protecting your marriage • 94, 129 • Jerry Jenkins discusses with Dr. Dobson how to protect your marriage by putting hedges around yourself so that you don’t go astray. He also talks about the difference between temptation and sin. 94 has just this talk, while side A of 129 has Resisting temptation.

Purified in God’s refining fire • 261 • Bob Reccord Advice and encouragement to those experiencing trials, reminding us to keep our eyes fixed on God, not circumstances. Side A has A teacher’s tales.

Pursuing God’s dreams for your life • 334 • Dr. Bruce Wilkinson joins Dr. Dobson to discuss why most people aren't living their dreams, the excitement of following God's special plan, and how being faithful to such a dream led him and his wife to South Africa.

Questions women ask (2 tapes) • 195, 196 • Dr. Joseph McIlhaney answers many women’s health questions.

Radio around the world • 165 • Interviews with the representatives of Focus on the Family affiliates worldwide, including Lee Wee Min of Malaysia.

Raising boys (1 & 2) • 210 • Dr. James Dobson talks about the joys, excitement—and various challenges—boys can present to parents.
Raising boys (3 & 4): kids & bullying • 211 • Dr. Dobson discusses what to do about the problem of bullying, especially as to how it impacts boys in particular.

Raising boys (5): men aren't fools • 212 • Dr. Dobson wraps up a week of talks on raising boys. This program specifically deals with the characterization of men as fools in popular culture and its impact on boys. Side B has First hand faith.

Raising boys: Boys Will Be Boys • 215 • (Video soundtrack) Dr. James Dobson talks about what makes raising boys so interesting and delightful!

Raising boys: Ultimate Priority • 217 • Dr. James Dobson. Raising kids is kind of like flying a kite — except with kids, there comes a time when you have to let them go. Dr. Dobson presents solutions to the struggle between parents, kids and today’s culture. Find out how to deal with the obstacles between you and your children, while keeping focused on the ultimate priorities in raising them!

Raising deaf kids • 275 • Marshall Lawrence, founder of Silent Blessings Deaf Ministries, describes how he adjusted to his daughter's hearing impairment, why the church has difficulty reaching the deaf community, and the rift that can develop in families when a child suffers from hearing loss. Side B has Reclaiming the innocence of women.

Raising the disabled child • 342 • Rev. Lon and Mrs. Brenda Solomon describe coming to terms with their little girl’s disabilities, how surrendering their situation to God improved their parenting, and what others can do to reach out to parents with disabled children. Brenda Solomon was at the end of her rope. Her daughter, Jill, was suffering from grand mal seizures brought on by severe mental retardation; her pastor husband was doing his best to keep the situation private; and Brenda was falling apart physically and emotionally. But when their congregation got involved, things began to change. Side A has The high price of a high calling.

Raising the standard for our children • 241 • Pastor James Ryle talks about the need for fathers to act as mentors to their children and discusses the journey toward manhood. Side B has How to teach your child about sex.

Reaching emotional wholeness • 41 • Benji Clarke Mallory. Childhood sexual abuse survivor.

Reaching Hearts on Abortion • 258 • Scott Klusendorf • Have you ever tried to debate a pro-abortion friend or colleague? Do you find yourself at a loss for words? Author and speaker Scott Klusendorf presents compassionate, logical and thought-provoking reasons in support of life, and refutes common pro-abortion arguments.

Reading to children • 219 • Jim Weidmann of Heritage Builders sits in for Dr. James Dobson, with guests Kurt and Olivia Bruner. Together they talk about one of their favorite subjects — reading to children. They emphasis that child development, virtues and character start in the pages of a good book. Find out how best to share the gift of reading with your kids! Side B has A role model for dads.

Reclaiming the innocence of women • 275 • Lisa Bevere • The media labeled it “the sexual revolution.” Liberals prefer the term “sexual freedom.” But Lisa Bevere says we're in a sexual nightmare. Bevere joins guest host Janet Parshall to discuss how to talk to children and teens about sex, why women compromise their purity and how God can restore a woman's hope, dignity and honor. Side A has Raising deaf kids.

Reclaiming traditional values • 36 • Rabbi Daniel Lapin. includes insight analysis on The Little Mermaid — the Hans Christian Anderson version v.s. the Disney version. Side B contains Jesus can't be the Messiah, can he?

Reflecting God’s love story in your marriage • 105 • Dr. James Dobson, Al Janssen and Kurt Bruner discuss God’s intention for marriage.

Reigniting the hope for the homosexual • 160 • John Polk made some foolish choices that jeopardised his ministry to recovering homosexuals. Side A contains Secrets of Sudan.

Relief for Overloaded Lives • 180 • Dr. Richard Swenson examines the perplexity of today's lifestyle and offers relief for overloaded lives.

Renewing hearts and homes • 259 • Kay Coles James has met too women bogged down and burned out by life's daunting demands. Are you one of them? James discusses the importance of setting aside time for personal renewal, allowing God to sooth your soul and acting on opportunities to bless those around you, and describes practical ways mothers can discipline their children, care for their husbands and strengthen their relationship with Christ.

Renewing my heart • 264 • Eva Self shares how being paralyzed in high school couldn't destroy her faith in God. Side B has In defense of spanking.
Renewing the heart: bringing up boys • 213 • Janet Parshall interviews Dr. James Dobson about his book on this topic Report on Paducah Killings • 12 • Interviews with the survivors of the murder spree at the school in Paducah, Kentucky. Side B has Ted Bundy.
Rescued by the hand of God • 15 • Dave & Barb Anderson. Missionary air plane crash in the freezing waters of the Bering Sea and their miraculous rescue. Side B has Plane down in the Bering Sea.
Rescuing the next generation • 205 • Josh McDowell exposes the relativistic thinking today’s American youth.
Resentment: the cancer of the emotions • 62 • Dr. Archibald Hart talks about how resentment can destroy you. Side B contains Mark Anderson’s Testimony.
Resisting temptation • 129 • Dr. Ted Engstrom discusses with Dr. Dobson ways to structure your life to resist temptation. Side B has Protecting your marriage.
Resolving family conflict • 273 • Ken Sande and Janet Parshall discuss positive ways to resolve conflict, be it sibling rivalry, parent-child tension or marital spats.
Respect: A marriage essential • 327 • Der. Emerson Eggerichs points out that the Bible tells husbands to love their wives, but doesn’t tell wives to love their husbands — instead, it tells them to respect their husbands. See how applying this can break the cyclical nature of a lot of marriage conflict.
Restoring the lampstand to America • 149 • Pastor Ken Wilde shares his passion to restore America's status as a godly nation. Includes stories of 2 wartime miracles. Side B has Love healed my wounds.
Rethinking internet dating • 71 • Dr. Neil Clark Warren. Yet another dating service on the internet? But this one actually matches you on things that are important and not on superficialities and is backed up by both research and Biblical principles.
Ridding our cities of pornography • 156 • Dr. Jerry Kirk, Clay Jones. National Coalition for the Protection of Children & Families. Interview.
Role Modeling integrity for your children • 246 • Interview with Jim & Anne Ryun and their children. Side 1 discusses their being homeschooling pioneers. Side 2 discusses how they eschewed dating for courtship. Jim Ryun was a track running star.
Secrets of Sudan • 160 • The Muslim government in northern Sudan’s genocide against the Christian & animist south involves both massacre and slavery. Side B contains Reigniting the hope for the homosexual.
Secret passions of a Christian woman • 278 • Carol Kent shares encouraging words, heartwarming stories, and a few good laughs to remind us of the difference we can make in the lives of others.
Serving God with what you have • 284 • Lori Salierno. Have you ever been proud, Selfish? Just pain rude? When it comes to sharing your faith, do you feel like you’re never quite holy enough? Even if you don’t think you have much to offer, we have a God who workes in spite of our weaknesses. Side B has You’re special to Jesus.
Set Free • 65 • Jackie & Bob Stratoff. Drug addiction, dramatic testimony.
Setting captives free • 248 • The statistics are shocking, the reality even worse. Whether halfway around the world or in your neighborhood, human trafficking is a problem many people would rather ignore. But former U.S. Rep. Linda Smith is not one of them. She discusses the horror and hope of this largely unreported problem - and what you can do to help.
Sexual addiction: the war within • 157 • Panel discussion.
Sexuality & singles • 267 • Elizabeth Elliot challenges Christian singles to avoid immorality and govern their lives with a staunch standard for physical behaviour. She discusses the great physical, emotional, and spiritual losses associated with promiscuity, and offers hope to those who have lost their virginity.

She calls me daddy • 222 • The Wolgemuths join Dr. Dobson to discuss different aspects of the relationship between dads and daughters.

Single parenting: the pain & the pleasure • 228 • Dr. Dobson is joined by 2 single moms who have learned how to be content in their circumstances & had their kids through the growing up years alive! Side B has Who do you see in the mirror?

Singles and dating • 74 • Dr. James Dobson. From the Love must be tough series parts 2 and 3. Some great tips about how to go about dating successfully from a famous Christian psychologist.

Singles: dealing with sexuality • 75 • We live in such an over-sexed world where God’s wonderful gift is being perverted daily. How are Christian singles to deal with this tension?

Softening a crusty heart • 57 • Lt. Colonel Don Coble was the epitome of the hardened military man who escaped his inner misery through overwork and alcoholism — and made life agonizing for his family. But in Softening a Crusty Heart, you’ll hear how the Lord — with love — broke through Don’s hardness to create a new man. Side A has Unequally yoked.

Solid Answers • 206, 207, 208, 209 • Mike Trout reads the first part of Dr. James Dobson’s book about raising children. 4 cassette tapes.

Solomon on Romance • 87 • Zig Ziglar is a famous motivational speaker in business circles, but he’s not just a great motivational speaker for business situations — he is also a passionate advocate of romance with your wife.

Solomon on Romance • 88 • Rev. Tommy Nelson. Discover what the Bible has to say about evaluating the character of the person you’re dating, building rapport, and how to apply patience to grow a relationship.

Someone I love is gay • 161 • Interview with people who were homosexual and their family members. Side A has A life changed by love.

Son of hope • 341 • David Berkowitz was raised in a good home by loving parents who poured their lives into their only child, yet he grew up to be one of the most notorious serial killers in U.S. history. So, how did Berkowitz become the infamous “Son of Sam”? He murdered six, injured seven more and wreaked havoc in America’s largest city. Yet, as the story of serial killer David Berkowitz demonstrates, no one is beyond God’s forgiveness.

Spiritual Warfare • 33 • Margie Mayfield. A woman of God’s encounter with a rapist & killer.

Standing in the gap • 29 • Discussion about the Promise Keepers & their million men gathering in Washington, D.C. Side A has Breaking the silence.

Standing up for what’s right • 309 • Panel • Standing up for Christian values in a hostile society is not easy, but you can make a difference

Staying Connected: Devotions for Couples • 255 • Shirley Dobson • You know him as a radio host, family expert and best-selling author, but to wife Shirley, Dr. James Dobson is also a husband, father and friend. With more than 40 years of marital happiness under their belts, Dr. and Mrs. Dobson have plenty to share with married couples everywhere when it comes to nurturing the spiritual side of a relationship. Join us for this tender and encouraging conversation with one of America’s most respected couples. Side B has Authority: foundation of the home.

Stones from the holy land • 136 • Ray Vander Laan takes us on another journey to the world of the Bible, this time drawing faith lessons from 2 different pieces of stone. Side B has Gambling your life away.

Straight talk to young couples • 79 • Do you want to hear the real deal, the unadulterated truth, about marital success today? Kay Coles James talks about what she wished she’d known before she got married. It’s an eye-opening broadcast for anyone considering, preparing for, or totally immersed in the act of marriage!

Stroke, alzheimer’s and parkinson’s disease • 193 • Panel discussion & interview.
Surviving the strong-willed child • 247 • What do you do when you’ve had it with your kids? How can tell if your child is genuinely strong willed? What are the positive aspects of having a strong-willed son or daughter? Cynthia Tobias offers plenty of practical advice for frazzled parents of strong-willed children.

Surviving the Adolescent Years • 311 • Dr. Kevin Leman • If you want your teenage son or daughter to spend more time at home, then you need to create an environment that’s appealing to them.

Teacher of the year • 47 • Guy Dowd was teacher of the year, but what really made him great was that he was a moulder of dreams.

Teaching kids through hymns • 317 • Joni Eareckson Tada and the Wolgemuth family share personal stories of how hymns have touched their lives, sing a few of their favorite verses, and discuss how even the youngest children can benefit from hearing these musical messages.

The battle to destroy lust • 323 • Joshua Harris, of “I kissed dating goodbye” fame, now a married pastor, describes how to deal with ever-present temptations to lust. Side B has Defusing anger in marriage.

The Christmas story • 171 • A collage of Christmas reflections. Side A has The innkeeper’s dream.

The Darwin debate • 132 • Evolution.

The destiny of our youth • 234 • Steve Fitzhugh has an effective inner-city ministry. In this tape he shares a powerful poem about the kinds of kids he ministers to. Side B has Children and Chores.

The essentials of a healthy home • 313 • Rev. Tommy Nelson. How can we adequately prepare our children for a world where temptation lurks around every corner?

The first year of marriage • 320 • Robert and Bobbie Wolgemuth talk about why the first year is so important, and how the tone of a marriage is established during the first 12 months. The typical bride and groom spend hundreds of hours planning their wedding, but much less time learning how to make a marriage. After the honeymoon is over and everyday life resumes, newlyweds are often surprised by their many differences. But those differences don’t have to drive them apart. They discuss practical ways to handle marital conflict, how intimacy can improve the relationship and the importance of supporting your spouse during challenging times.

The gift of sex • 78 • It’s not a bad word. Within the proper God-designed context, it is a good and holy thing designed by God.

The gift that saves lives • 189 • This program features a panel of guests, including doctors and patients, who talk about their experiences with organ transplants.

The girl who left the swastika / Lord, keep us free • 5 • Maria “Hansi” Ann Hershman, former Nazi Youth Leader recounts her life in a Communist labour camp and the liberation she first experienced through the American troops in Germany and, later, through Jesus Christ.

The greatest of these is love • 1 • Corrie Ten Boom relates her experiences in a Nazi concentration camp, revealing how God’s love enables us to forgive those who cause us great pain.

The high price of a high calling • 342 • Evelyn Husband, wife of deceased shuttle Commander Rick Husband, describes the man she loved and lost, how the tragic events unfolded and how God has provided comfort during a time of incredible grief. Side B has Raising the disabled child.

The importance of giving • 167 • A collection of Christmas stories. Side A contains If only Herod had known.

The importance of heros • 265 • Former Olympian Jim Ryun, his sons and Dr. James Dobson share inspiring stories of heroes.

The importance of leaving margins • 181 • Why it is important to not over-stretching or overworking yourself.
The importance of premarital counselling and counsel for engaged couples • 69 •
Dr. Norm Wright. People spend so much time and money preparing for the wedding, but often spend so little preparing for the marriage. Here is a way to increase your chances of a successful marriage dramatically.

The incredible worth of a woman • 91 • Gary Smalley. What does the biblical concept of honor in relationships have to do with a woman's worth? And what makes a woman so valuable?

The innkeeper’s dream • 171 • David Shelton’s dramatization of how the innkeeper may have perceived Jesus’ birth. Side B has The Christmas Story.

The joys of grandparenting • 252 • Eric Wiggin and Helen Hosier offer practical advice on how grandparents can relate to their grandchildren while passing on a faith that will last a lifetime. Side B has In-law conflict.

The kids are gone Ö now what? • 175 • Dr. James Dobson talks with David and Claudia Arp, as they explore the challenge couples face in long-term marriages.

The language of love • 90 • Gary Smalley & John Trent. How to talk in such a way that your loved one can understand how you feel.

The last gift we give • 185 • Dr. James Dobson and a panel of guests shine a light on the funeral industry. Side A has The sandwich generation

The last gift we give • 72 • Dr. James Dobson and a panel of guests shine a light on the funeral industry. Side B contains God’s help in my life.

The life of the party • 23 • Becky Tirabassi. Testimony about how the “party” life isn’t quite so fun after all. Drinking & partying. Side B has Coping as a Messie.

The lost years / a modern day Joseph • 144 • Dr. Dobson takes up the cause of Bill Kennedy whom he believes was convicted of a crime he did not commit and a victim of a self-serving public prosecutor who used unconstitutional and underhanded tactics in prosecuting the case.

The mystique of a woman • 95 • Jean Lush emphasizes the need for wives to maintain the “feminine mystique” in marriage. You can learn to develop a gentle and quiet spirit in the midst of everyday demands. Find out how! Side B has How to save your marriage.

The nation remembers • 147 • 1 year anniversary tribute to the heroes of September 11.

The origins of homosexuality • 138 • Dr. James Dobson answers the question, “If homosexuality is neither genetic nor chosen, how does it come about?” Side B has Finding Jesus in the Old Testament.

The right education for your child • 282 • A panel of parents discusses pros and cons of several alternatives, including homeschooling, how you can decide what’s best for your family, and the online resources Focus on the Family offers to help parents make this crucial decision. Side A has Victims of gambling.

The sacred union of marriage • 326 • Gary Thomas describes typical — and often unrealistic — expectations for marriage, how men and women bring different qualities into the relationship, and why serving our spouse reflects the love for God. As Christians, we’ve heard that applying biblical principles to our marriage will give us a stronger foundation than our unbelieving friends and neighbours, but what are we doing about it?

The two sides of love • 291 & 292 • Gary Smalley & John Trent, Ph.D. Two cassette album.

The ups and downs of marriage • 102 • Becky Freeman gives practical advice to couples on how to overcome their differences and how opposite personalities can enhance a marriage.
The value of full-time moms • 268 • Mrs. Jill Savage. So what do stay-at-home moms do all day? Sleep late, watch soap operas, and work on their tans? Hardly! More women today are choosing to stay at home with their children, so why don’t many many view this as a “real” job when motherhood is often the most fulfilling career choice a woman can make.

The wages of sin • 130 • Rev. Ted Haggard asks the question, “How much is your sin going to cost me?” and talks about avoiding the path to moral failure.

Thirsting for wholeness • 307 • Carol Anderson describes her battle with anorexia and bulimia. Side A has With justice for all.

Tillie • 162 • Drama by Frank Peretti. Abortion.

Tipping the scales in your favour • 187 • Joanna Lund talks about how to change your lifestyle rather than trying to diet. Side B has Overweight children.

To date or not to date • 76 • Joshua Harris. Gen-Xer who believes that one should not date in the usual manner.

To spank or not to spank • 225 • Dr. James Dobson talks about corporal punishment.

Todd Beamer: A legacy of Honour • 10 • Lisa Beamer shares about her husband, one of the heros who prevented the 4th plane on September 11th from crashing into the White House.

Toddlerhood: Dr. Dobson answers your questions • 297 • This program is a collection of questions & answers people had asked Dr. Dobson in the ’80s, but the advice is still relevant today.

Torn between love & duty • 46 • Doing the right thing even though it would be costly to do so. Arson.

Train Up a Child • 242 • Dr. Kevin Leman, through humor and personal anecdotes, explains how to teach your children to take responsibility for their actions — and accept the consequences of making wrong choices. Side B contains Overcoming anger.

Traveling through life’s trials • 296 • Lisa Harper. Living a life of radical obedience to God can be challenging — especially when He seems far away. But we can continue to hold onto God’s promise that He’ll never leave us or forsake us. Author and speaker Lisa Harper uses the book of Ruth to illustrate how God works in the midst of our troubling circumstances.

Triumph through tragedy at Wedgewood • 14 • Interview with some of the survivors of the massacre at Wedgewood Baptist Church in September 1999. Once again, “the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church.”

TV: Horrid vs. Hopeful • 154 • Panel discussion with media watchers and a missionary to Hollywood.

U.S. Senate debate on partial birth abortion • 146 • Partial birth abortion is basically infanticide, yet it is still legal in most states in America.

Understanding mental illness • 194 • Do you know someone who suffers from some form of mental illness? Guest host Dr. Bill Maier, along with experts Dr. Paul Meier, Dr. Phil Swihart and Willy Wooten, discusses the church’s response to those struggling with this issue. Find out how you can show compassion and understanding to people dealing with mental illness — and their families.

Understanding the real meaning of love • 319 • Dr. James Dobson offers sound advice on what it means to be “in love,” why feelings of infatuation are often unreliable, and how parents can address these topics - and many more - with their own children. Falling in love is one of the most wonderful, confusing, exhilarating, frightening experiences in life.

Yet many people - young and not-so-young - aren't equipped to make their love last a lifetime. Divorce is so rampant these days that it can be hard to convince our children that a satisfying, lifelong marriage is worth fighting for. Dr. Dobson presents a realistic, Christian perspective on married life, addressing inevitable relationship struggles, and how to choose a marriage partner.

Unequally yoked • 57 • Three unequally yoked women speak candidly of their own unsaved husbands and offer profound advice regarding such hot topics as submission, child-rearing conflicts, loneliness, manipulation, discouragement and much more. Side B has Softening a Crusty Heart.

Up close and personal with Zig • 56 • Zig Ziglar. He was the 10th of 12 children growing up without a father in a home where money was tight and family bonds even tighter. From struggling student to one of America’s best-known inspirational speakers.

Victims of gambling • 282 • 3 recovering gambling addicts tell Dr. Dobson how they got involved in gambling, its devastating toll on their families, and what they did to break the addictive cycle. Side B has The right education for your child.

Viva la difference • 100 • Humorous skits on marriage. Side B has Chose Laughter.

What kids say when their parents aren’t around • 229 • Jay Kessler wrote the book Emotionally Healthy Teenagers.

What our mothers didn’t tell us • 139 • Danielle Crittenden challenges feminist assumptions.

What we believe • 111 • Frank Perretti — just the man, a microphone — and a chair. You won’t forget what he has to say. A message of truth, hope and wisdom delivered in an energetic way by a fireball of a communicator. Spend a half-hour with one of America’s best-loved storytellers. The subject is “Absolute Truth,” and you won’t want to miss it!

What wives wish their husbands knew about women • 81 • Dr. James Dobson has some great insights into how men and women are different.

When death takes a spouse • 173 • Bruce Nygren tells of how he coped with the death of his wife. Side B has A brush with death.

When God doesn’t make sense • 184 • Dr. James Dobson reairs this old discussion about our sense of betrayal when bad things happen to us in spite of us following God, in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks of 11 September.

When love isn’t enough • 335 • Nancy Thomas & Dr. Sandra Lundberg use real-life examples to help us better understand Reactive Attachment Disorder, explain why adopted children are at greater risk, and describe typical symptoms, causes and treatments. Side B has Ministering to prisoners’ families.

When relationships break down • 8 • Dewey Bertolini speaks about his struggle with his relationship with his father. Side B has A visit with Jeremiah Denton.

When you’re in love • 77 • Joshua Harris, who was famous for “I kissed dating goodbye,” talks about courtship.

Where’s Dad? • 218 • From the Focus on the Family Film Series. Dr. James Dobson talks about the importance of fathers to the development of children.

Who do you see in the mirror • 228 • Dr. Adrian Rogers explores the true spiritual identity of Christians and how it can revolutionize our lives. Side A has Single parenting: the pain & the pleasure.

Why does marriage matter? • 318 • Glenn Stanton and Maggie Gallagher join Dr. Bill Maier to discuss the issue of same-sex marriage, why the future of the family is at risk and how we can defend traditional marriage to a skeptical society.

Why does my child misbehave? • 324 • Greg Cynaumon explains that kids are different, so you can’t discipline them all the same way. He talks about 4 basic “DQ” (Discipline Quotient) categories, and how to tailor your discipline techniques with different kinds of children.

Why home schools work (part 2) • 202 • Dr. Michael Farris talks about a movement whose time has come and something every parent should consider. (Part 1 was only relevant to the American political scene so I didn’t save it.) Side A has A message to teens about sex.

Why purity matters • 201 • Long version of 122.

Why purity matters • 122 • Joe White talks about the benefits of purity — and the joy found in marriage. Side A contains Lighten up with Liz.

Why women need women • 251 • Dee Brestin. Sometimes a woman really needs another woman to talk to. Dee Brestin explains that God understands this need, as illustrated by Jesus’ mother Mary and her cousin Elizabeth.
Wide my world... narrow my bed • 343 • Luci Swindoll reminds unmarried men and women to seize life, serve others and rely on God through it all. Side A has Bringing life to others.

Wiping away the clouds of depression • 332 • Dr. Arch Hart and Dr. Catherine Hart Weber discuss why depression is an epidemic, what causes the disorder and how it can be treated. They discuss stresses that can lead to depression, how men and women react to the disorder differently and how we can deal with loved ones who are struggling with depression.

With justice for all • 307 • Dr. John Perkins was born to a poverty-stricken black family in the racially-discriminatory American South, but Christ took him beyond that. Side B has Thristing for wholeness.

With love to hurting teens • 204 • Guy Dowd, former Teacher of the Year and outspoken champion of teens presents a strong challenge to make kids a priority, not an afterthought.

Woman to woman • 140 • Titus 2:4 ministries, highlighting the need for younger women to be in mentoring relationships with older women and how husbands cannot fulfill all their wives’ needs.

Women and heart disease • 198 • Dr. Walt Larrimore talks about how women can be at risk without knowing it.

Women and sexuality • 200 • Have you ever wondered what God’s perspective on marital sex is? Linda Dillow and Lorraine Pintus join Dr. James Dobson for an in-depth study of women and sexuality. Is it possible to be godly Ð and sensuous?

Women and stress • 254 • Mrs. Jean Lush. What can women do about the stress in their lives?

Women’s health and pregnancy • 199 • Dr. Joseph McIlhaney answers questions about women’s health & pregnancy.

Women’s health issues • 197 • A panel of medical doctors discuss some of the many medical issues specific to women including PMS, postpartum depression, and menopause.

Words of kindness, source of healing • 112 • Florence Littauer illustrates how your words of kindess are like precious gifts to others. Side B has Give yourself a break.

Worthy in His eyes • 63 • Iris & Duane Blue share about how everyone is valuable to God — with themselves as the prime example — they were utterly lost and reprobate when God reached down and touched them.

Wounded hearts • 289 • Frank Peretti is famous for his Christian novels on spiritual warfare, but he is also a very gifted speaker, often providing his own sound effects. In this speech he openly shares about the bullying he went through as a child.

You’re special to Jesus • Donna Linville was many times devastated by the words of her peers as a child. She describes her childhood crisis of confidence, and how her mother continued to support her in prayer, and the event that turned her life around. Side A has Serving God with what you have.

Your attitude: key to success • 302 • Dr. John Maxwell. Based on Paul's statement “Let this attitude be in you which was also in Christ Jesus,” he explores the kind of attitude Christ had and how to apply it to your life.

Next: 340